

Dr. Gregory Russell

Dr. Russell is a retired family physician who resides in St. John's. He completed his medical degree from Dalhousie in 1959 and established his family practice that same year. He retired in 1999 after providing 40 years of service to the province.

He is well-known for having served as the Medical Director of MCP through the eighties and early nineties.

###