

We would like to bring the following educational opportunity to your attention.

Foundation Course in Occupational Medicine

Provides you with knowledge and skills for areas in Occupational Medicine that are particularly encountered in family medicine and community based practice

The Foundation Course in Occupational Medicine was developed by the University of Alberta as a blended learning course.

Key features:

- Certified for 334.5 MainPro+ credits by CFPC
- Small class sizes
- 10 months duration - September 2021 to June 2022
- Self-study, monthly tutorials, and two one-day workshops
- Materials relevant to specific provincial jurisdictions, legislation, and organizations
- Addresses management of work-related health issues
- Course fees: $4,200 + GST

Visit our website to register your interest for 2021-22

<https://www.ualberta.ca/departments-of-medicine/divisions/preventive-medicine/foundation-course-in-occupational-medicine> or contact the Course Coordinator at omcourse@ualberta.ca for more information about the course.