Faculty of Medicine

A full-time Family Medicine faculty position at the level of Assistant Professor or above, depending on experience, is available. This position is eligible for promotion in accordance with Faculty of Medicine guidelines related to strong performance in education, leadership, research, and clinical excellence. This position is anticipated to commence January 1, 2024, subject to budgetary approval.

Major academic responsibilities include undergraduate and residency education within the Discipline of Family Medicine and the Faculty of Medicine. Priorities for this position include resident support, resident assessment, extensions of training, and remediation. Clinical responsibilities will include a diversified Family Medicine practice linked to the Shea Heights academic teaching site. The successful candidate will be expected to practice broad scope Family Medicine.

Candidates must be certificants of the College of Family Physicians of Canada and eligible for full licensure by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Newfoundland and Labrador. An alternate payment package allows for protected time for the expected scholarly activity in education, leadership, and research. Attainment of an advanced degree in either research or education is an expected component of the position being offered.
