Dear Doctors and Allied Health Professionals:

We are pleased to announce that NL Surgical Consultants will be welcoming a new General and Colorectal Surgeon, Dr. Jessica (Jay) Shanahan. She is fellowship-trained in colorectal surgery and will be amalgamating with Dr. Amanda Fowler and Dr. Mo Yu Lanny Li into one colorectal practice.

New patients will continue to be accepted on a referral basis. Dr. Shanahan, Dr. Li, and Dr. Fowler will be accepting general surgery referrals, as well as referrals pertaining to benign and malignant colorectal and anal disease. This includes:

- Colon & Rectal and Anal Cancer
- Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD)
- Diverticular Disease
- Rectal Prolapse
- Fecal incontinence
- Anorectal disease (i.e. hemorrhoids, anal fissures, fistulas, pilonidal disease, anal condylomata, premalignant anal lesions)

All three will also offer upper and lower endoscopic services, as well as minor procedures.

We look forward to receiving your referrals, and collaborating with you, on the care of your patients.

Sincerely,

NL Surgical Consultants
